2.0 RESPONSIBILITIES

All those referred to under the Scope of this policy are responsible for complying with the terms of the policy.

3.0 POLICY

3.1 Principles

1. All relevant pre enrolment and course entry requirements are provided to prospective students on websites, brochures, and other relevant documentation where every effort is made to ensure the information is factual, accurate, regularly updated and easily accessible by potential students and others.
2. AIM follows the course entry requirements, or the required knowledge, skills and experience, mandated or recommended by nationally developed Training Package qualifications and VET accredited courses.

3. AIM also has entry requirements that will assist students to successfully undertake and complete a course. These include a minimum number of year's work experience, level of language, literacy, numeracy other skills or factors such as age (i.e. over 18 years), computer equipment and continuous access to the internet.
4. Selection and admission for Training Products at AIM:
 - a. is fair, equitable and transparent
 - b. is merit based
 - c. identifies students with capacity to succeed and those who may require support
 - d. encourages diverse and representative access, and takes into account where possible educational or social disadvantage
 - e. recognises formal, non-formal and informal prior learning.
5. Selection and admission to AIM Training Products is based on the published course entry requirements, and relevant legislative and government obligations, including the NSW Smart and Skilled subsidised training requirements.
6. Student seeking Credit Transfer or Recognition of Prior Learning are recommended to apply at enrolment as it may have an impact on course structure and duration.
7. AIM reserves the right to not proceed with the delivery of a Training Product if there are insufficient applicants.
8. AIM may reject an application:
 - a. if the application is shown to be incomplete, or made with fraudulent documentation or
 - b. if the applicant behaves, or is found to have behaved, in a way that breaches the Student Code of Conduct
 - c. if the application package was provided to the applicant in error.
9. Applicants seeking admission to an AIM Training Product are required to submit acceptable evidence that they meet the published entry criteria for their chosen course.
10. When students sign the Enrolment Form, they are committed to paying the Total Course Fees unless they cancel their course within the five (5) business days Provisional Enrolment period as defined in the Withdrawal, Deferral, Extension, Transfer and Refund policy.
11. AIM has a range of payment options that include:
 - a. Paying upfront for the full cost of the qualification in one payment;
 - b. Deferring all or part of the tuition fees with flexible payment options through AIM's finance partner, Zip Money;
 - c. Other payment options, including funding options for eligible students of government supported training.

12. Enrolment information collected from students will be appropriate and relevant to the enrolment and AIM's regulatory obligations.
13. AIM will manage personal information with confidentiality and in accordance with AIM's Privacy of Student Information and Records Policy.
14. Students who have withdrawn from an AIM Training Product and request re-admission must follow the normal selection and admission process and entry is not guaranteed.
15. AIM complies with the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015 including the clauses related to marketing, recruitment and enrolment - clauses 1.2, 3.5, 4.1, 5.1-5.3, and 7.3.
16. AIM complies with the requirements of government funded training programs including the NSW Smart and Skilled programs.
